NOTE:
We have tried to maintain the same question numbers as N10. Where new items have been inserted, they will have a code like BN instead of B to indicate these are new variables. In addition, BC or BNC would be a variable in the B series that has been changed in some way. This version of the questionnaire is not always in alphabetic and numeric order because of rearranging some sections and moving some items.

NEWADULT:
Hello, my name is ______. I am calling as a part of a research study funded by the National Institutes of Health. My computer has randomly selected you from among the adult members of your household to participate in this study, we cannot substitute any other person. Portions of this call may be monitored and recorded for quality control purposes. We are conducting an important study for the National Institutes of Health. Participation involves answering questions about health related issues such as the experience of injuries, violence, and some background questions such as your age and marital status. We are also interested in your attitudes, opinions and use of alcohol and drugs even if you do not drink alcoholic beverages or use drugs. You are one of more than 7,000 persons randomly selected to be part of this study. Your participation provides important information for treatment and policy on health-related issues. Your participation is very important to the success of the study and is voluntary.

If any questions make you uncomfortable just tell me and we can move on to the next one; you can postpone or end the interview at any time. All of your answers to questions will be confidential. Your answers will be entered into the computer in a form that does not allow any answer to be identified with any personal identifying information. Your answers will be grouped with those of all the other participants. The survey takes about 30 minutes, and you will receive a $20 amazon.com gift code in compensation for this brief interview. Portions of this call may be monitored and recorded for quality control purposes.

[if needed] If you have any questions, I can provide a telephone number for you to call to get more information.
